

I want to vehemently oppose the "Consumer Bankers Association's" challenge to Indiana's telephone privacy laws. There are other ways to contact consumers if the bankers want to do so. If they were truly "consumer bankers" they would respect our privacy and not spam our telephone lines with solicitations.

In this busy world, we have precious little quiet time. Let's keep our evenings peaceful and retain the telephone privacy laws.

-Dr. Roy J. Winkler, Ph.D.